to you I have requested that an estimate may also be sent for a new table cloth for the Dewan's table in the Council Chamber. As the estimate received with your letter under reference does not contain any provision for this second table cloth, I am to request the favour of your kindly sending an estimate for this also as early as possible to-day. The baize to be used for the Dewans second table should be exactly the same as that used for the Council table.

Yours sincerely,
